

Temporary Exhibition:

Gitler & _____ presents Kristian Glynn

Release date: November 26, 2012

Gitler & _____ is pleased to present an exhibition of Kristian Glynn's work, the artist's first major solo show and the gallery's inaugural event of the season. The Australian-born Glynn (b. 1978) began experimenting with cardboard boxes in 2006 and this exhibition features his work created between 2010-2012 while living in Osaka, Japan.

Manipulating paper, glue, and cigarette filters into three-dimensional artworks, Glynn scratches at the fantasy beneath the mundane, whispering stories through characters carved out of paper. Each work acts as a set piece, lit with text and animated by personalities that stand in shadowed relief to their recycled surroundings.

Toying with ideas of child's play and composition, fixed and dynamic purpose, Glynn invites the viewer into an alternative universe, ambiguously inspired by familiar comics, movies, and personalities. Taken individually or together, the creations reflect a sense of wonder and amusement, smiling at contemporary art conventions while taking a back road through them.

The exhibition is open from Monday, November 26, 2012 through Monday, December 3, 2012, from 11am – 9pm, at 317 10th Avenue (between 28th and 29th), New York, NY 10001.
